

who's who...

II WHO'S WHO IN DIVERSITY II

Tammera Holmes,
President/CEO, Aerostar Corp.

Holmes has volunteered countless hours as a motivational speaker, addressing topics ranging from careers in aviation to successful leadership and management. She and some colleagues have launched the Aviation Academic Initiative (AAI), dedicated to increasing public understanding of the importance of aviation and to support aviation education initiatives at the local, state, and national levels. She is currently a member of the Chicago chapter of Tuskegee Airmen Incorporated, Women in Aviation International, and the National Association of Professional Women. She graduated from Southern Illinois University with a bachelor's degree in aviation management.

Nancy Nyugen

As a first-generation American and the first in her family to receive a master's degree, Nyugen looks to inspire others to have the courage to pursue their dreams, especially in the business world. She received her B.A. from North Carolina State University in Spanish in order to immerse herself in the Hispanic culture, and recently completed her MBA at DePaul University and is now working to learn the business of television. For the last two years, Nyugen has served as a DePaul GSB Ambassador. She has been interviewed by the Wall Street Journal, First Business, and Pageantry magazine. She is also the current Miss United States.